

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JTS AWARDED BETTER BUSINESS BUREAU ETHICAL LEADERSHIP AWARD

Fresno, CA – September 17, 2020– JTS (Johanson Transportation Service), a leading third-party supply chain solutions provider, was named the winner of the 2020 Ethics Award for Marketplace Excellence in the Medium Business category. This is a combined project of the Fresno State Ethics Center, Lyle Center and the Better Business Bureau serving Central California and Inland Empire Counties to recognize businesses who demonstrate an outstanding level of ethics and integrity in all their business dealings.

"We are honored to be named recipient of this year's Ethical Leadership Award. JTS was founded upon the principles of Experience, Integrity, Gratitude and Respect, and for the past nearly 50 years in business, those principles still guide us and are the bedrock upon which we operate. I am appreciative to our staff, who conduct themselves ethically, providing outstanding service to our customers across the country," says President/CEO Larry Johanson.

The award was presented to Larry and Dick Johanson at the corporate office. CBS47 aired the Celebration of Ethical Leadership Awards and the award presentation to JTS. The segment can be viewed at:
