FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Three JTS Employees Receive TIA Certified Transportation Broker Designations

Fresno, CA – August 23, 2018 – JTS (Johanson Transportation Service), a leading third-party supply chain solutions provider, announces that the following employees were granted the designation of Certified Transportation Brokers (CTB) by the Transportation Intermediaries Association (TIA): Judy Arke, Administrative Assistant; Casie Loeffler, Logistics Coordinator; and, Devon Klundt, Sales and Logistics.

The exam tests the knowledge of participants on brokerage, ethics, contracts, pricing, legal and regulatory requirements, as well as the latest trends in transportation and business management.

“I am appreciative and proud that Judy, Casie and Devon are committed to improving their professional training and have earned their CTB designation. They are now further equipped to provide the highest level of service and business intelligence regarding ethical practices and the latest regulatory changes as they serve our customers,” says President/CEO Larry Johanson.

Ms. Arke is celebrating 15 years of service this month with JTS and works in the Fresno Corporate Accounting department. Ms. Loeffler is an eight-year veteran at JTS, working in the Temperature-Controlled division. Mr. Klundt has worked for the Pacific Northwest office located in Tigard, OR for two years.

The CTB designation is a mark of respect for transportation intermediaries.
