Logistics Tech Outlook Magazine Names JTS as a 2016 “Top 10 Transport Management Solution Provider”

Fresno, CA – December 6, 2016 – JTS (Johanson Transportation Service), a leading third-party supply chain solutions provider, announces that they have been chosen as one of the 2016 “Top Transport Management Solution Providers” in the December edition of Logistics Tech Outlook Magazine.

In addition to appearing on the Top 10 list, JTS is featured as the “Company of the Month” in the magazine, which is targeted to logistics technology professionals. Craig Johansson, VP Logistics, was interviewed for the two-page article, which highlights the features and benefits of JTS’ cloud-based TMS, FreightOptixx™.

A distinguished panel of experts, logistics industry professionals, and technology leaders including board members of Logistics Tech Outlook reviewed many solution providers and made the final decision.

“We take pride in honoring Johanson Transportation Service for earning a spot in our ranking list which features an elite group of companies that is setting new benchmarks in the logistics industry,” says Linda James, Managing Editor of Logistics Tech Outlook.

JTS President/CEO Larry Johanson remarks, “JTS recently launched our cloud-based TMS, FreightOptixx™, which provides greater visibility, time and cost savings and improved operational efficiency for our customers as they manage their daily supply chain activities. We are honored to be recognized as a top provider in the logistics technology industry, and this achievement further validates JTS as a market leader in providing cutting-edge logistics technology solutions”.
